Privacy Policy

The Bridge Builder Collective ("TBBC") is committed to protecting the privacy and personal information of individuals who engage with our programs, services, and website.

Information We Collect

TBBC may collect personal information when individuals make donations, register for programs or events, complete online forms or surveys, or communicate with the organization. Information collected may include names, contact information, demographic information relevant to program participation, and payment information for donations or event registrations.

How Information Is Used

Information collected is used to administer programs and services, communicate organizational updates, process donations and provide tax acknowledgments, improve program quality, and meet legal, reporting, and compliance requirements. TBBC does not sell, trade, or rent personal information to third parties.

Information Sharing

Personal information may be shared only as necessary to comply with applicable laws, work with trusted service providers (such as payment processors or data platforms) for operational purposes, or protect the rights, safety, and property of program participants, volunteers, staff, or the organization. All service providers are expected to maintain appropriate confidentiality and data protection practices.

Data Security

TBBC takes reasonable administrative and technical measures to protect personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. While no system can guarantee absolute security, TBBC strives to safeguard all information collected.

Children's Privacy

TBBC provides programs for youth and may collect limited information about minors solely for program participation and safety purposes. Information about minors is collected with parent or guardian consent and used only for program-related activities.

Your Choices

Individuals may request to review or update personal information, opt out of non-essential communications, or be removed from mailing lists by contacting TBBC.

Policy Updates & Contact

This Privacy Policy may be updated periodically to reflect changes in organizational practices or legal requirements. Questions regarding this policy may be directed to:
